

CHRYSALIS STEINER SCHOOL

educating the whole child

Dear Secretary,

I,, residing at

hereby apply for membership to the company Chrysalis School for Rudolf Steiner Education (Ltd).

The following extract is from the constitution:

Membership

Membership is limited to 30, with all members having equal rights.

Admission

The Members of the Company are:

- (a) the initial 10 Members of the Company listed in Annexure 1 to this Constitution; and
- (b) any other eligible persons whom the Directors admit to membership in accordance with this Constitution.
- (c) a $ 10 fee is required upon application for membership and falls due for renewal annually on 31st March.

A person is eligible to be admitted to membership if the person:

- (a) is either a parent of a student at the school; member of staff or a member of the teaching faculty;
- (b) has never been a registrable person for the purposes of the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000 (NSW) nor ever been convicted of an indictable offence; and
- (c) is not an undischarged bankrupt.

Applications for membership of the Company must be in writing, signed by the applicant, and be in a form approved by the Directors in their absolute discretion. (See reverse side for application form.)

The Directors will consider each application for membership at the next meeting of Directors after the application is received. In considering an application for membership, the Directors may:

- (a) accept the application, if such acceptance will not lead to the membership exceeding the limits imposed by clause 8.2;
- (b) reject the application; or
- (c) ask the applicant to give more evidence of eligibility or suitability for membership.

If the Directors ask for more evidence, their determination of the application for membership is to be deferred until the evidence is given.

The Directors do not have to give any reason for rejecting an application for membership.

The rights and privileges of every Member are personal to each Member and are not transferable by the Member's own act or by operation of law.

In the event of Membership being accepted, Members details (name, address and phone number) may be provided to other Members for the purposes of conducting Company business or exercising their rights under relevant legislation.
