

PROGRAM

1.00pm: Opening Story by Iris Curteis.

2.00pm: Nursing care perspectives: considerations of nursing the dying at home, recognising signs of approaching death and the gestures of nursing. Presenter: Charlotte Rogers.

3.00pm: Afternoon tea

3.30pm: Practical Demonstration – Laying out of the body: washing and anointing/oiling the body, clothing and shrouding, laying out and attendance/maintaining the body during the 3-day vigil. Presented by Charlotte Rogers and Irmhild Kleinhenz.

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Charlotte Rogers: RN, local anthroposophic nurse has a longstanding relationship with Bellingham Hospital. She also works with rhythmical massage and art therapy.

Irmhild Kleinhenz: ND, Grad.Dip. Integrative medicine, Grad Cert Anthroposophic Medicine IPMT. Irmhild has had thirty years experience in anthroposophic-based health care practice, mentoring and lecturing on an integrative humanistic medical philosophy.

Iris Curteis, PhD: local storyteller and social artist.

